A Word From Our President

Dear Guild Members,

November is a time of Thanksgiving, which, in turn instills a desire to help others. Once again this year, the guild has decided to give a Christmas bag to each of the homeless children of Calhoun County. I would like to express a very special thank you to our Community Service Chairperson, Mary Simmons for heading up this project. She has secured some basic toiletries (shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, soap, toothpaste and toothbrush) for each child. This will allow each member to provide the fun things in their bags that will make them feel special and loved!

I am looking forward to our guest speakers for the November meeting. What a great way to kick off the holiday season!

Also, I have shared the details of the guild quilt challenge for the 2020 quilt show. I am so excited to see your creations. Please be sure to read the information in this newsletter.

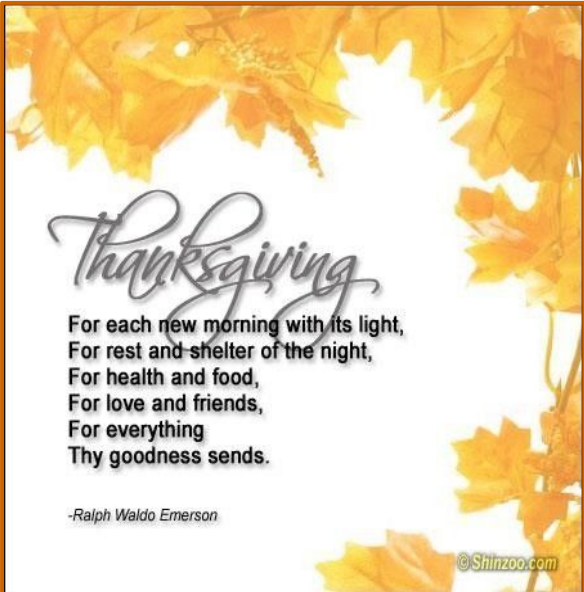

I hope each of you remember to count your blessings, give thanks and gobble til you wobble!

May your bobbin always be full!

Yours truly,
Angie

We had these visitors in October! Glad to have them!!

November Program

Our program scheduled for this month is by Shelly Gephart and Kim Morrow, of Hoschton, GA, co-writers of the children’s book, “The Santa Suit Quilt”. What does Mrs. Claus do with all of the suits that Santa has ruined while delivering toys for over 400 years? As quilters themselves, Shelly and Kim created this magical story you’ll want to give with a quilt handmade by “Mrs. Claus and the Elves”. They will talk about making the quilt and will have their books for sale at the meeting. Go to their FaceBook page and check out the fun these two ladies have had with this book!

2019 Community Service Update

Our last project for 2019 will be the Christmas bags for the homeless children. An update will be given on the number of bags needed. Each member is asked to take at least one bag to fill.

There have been hygiene items donated for each bag. There should be shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, soap, toothbrush and toothpaste for each child. Ideas for some other items for you to consider for girl’s bags are nail polish, lip gloss, hairbrush, ponytail holders, gloves, toboggan, scarf, socks, candy, gift cards. Items for boy’s bags are socks, gloves, toboggan, chap stick, combs, playing cards, gift cards, flashlight, jerky. Just remember these kids will be thankful for anything!

Thanks to each of you who have taken the time to come to sew day or time on your own to sew these bags together.

Executive Board Elections

Tippi Healea was appointed as our LSQG chairperson for the nominating committee for our 2020 officers. She has been talking to members to see if they have members they would like to nominate for next year.

At this month’s meeting, elections will be held. It is very important for you to vote!

The new officers will begin at the January 2020 meeting.

The Bobbin’s find out that quilt betting is a poor substitute for turkey stuffing.

2020 Quilt Show Information

Any quilt show information available for November will be provided at the meeting! A quilt show steering committee meeting November 18th and any information for that meeting will be in the December newsletter.

We will really begin to work hard on the show after the holidays. When 2020 rolls around, we will be wide open! Of course, this is a good time to work on your quilts for the show when you have a minute here and there in the hustle and bustle of Thanksgiving and Christmas!

Until then, eat, celebrate and sew!

Opportunity Quilt Update

Our three opportunity quilts are almost completed! The binding on two of the quilts is all that remains to be done. They will be finished, photos made, and the tickets purchased and ready to begin selling in January! These quilts are so beautiful they should almost sell themselves!

The drawing will be held at the Quilt Show in September.

Once again, thanks to those who have worked on this project!
